BETO BACKS THE BEARS Beto autographs a BU hat for a crowd member. In hopes of appealing to college students for his campaign, Texas governor candidate Beto O'Rourke makes his way to Baylor University for a rally which took place behind Freight Bar.

BIG SMILES FOR BETO Smiling wide, Conroe, Tx. senior Collyn Sebastian snags a photo with Beto after his Waco rally. "Going to the Beto campaign was something I felt passionate about as a young democrat in Waco," Sebastian said. "While there were not a lot of us, it was incredible to see everyone come together to support Beto and his journey in the 2022 governor election. He was so motivated and encouraged by us college kids and it was an honor to get a picture with him at the end."

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING Attempting to block the harsh sun with her campaign poster, Hallsville, Tx. sophomore Brinkley Bounds yells in favor of Beto's speech. "I went to the Beto rally with my friend to see what he had to say, and since it was the first election I was able to vote in, it was very important to me to understand both sides' platforms," Bounds said. "I agreed with the majority of Beto's ideas and was excited to cast my vote for him. It was cool seeing other students in attendance, both in support and protest."

CHAMPIONING REELECTION Greeting the McLennan County officials, Woodlands, Tx. Junior Nick Mandeza joins the crowd at George's in support of Abbott's campaign. "I loved this rally," Mandeza said. "It was wonderful to hear from our local lawmakers in Austin and learn about how Conservative policy is continuing explosive growth in Texas. Texas must remain a leader in the world. The only way we can do that is through sound public policy that prioritizes small government, individual liberty, and low taxes, and I see these values reflected in Governor Abbott."

ALL IN FAVOR OF ABBOTT Wacoans gather outside of George's Restaurant, showing their devotion to the republican candidate. Gov. Greg Abbott held an event at 9 a.m. Thursday at George's Restaurant to let McLennan County voters hear his voice and inspire them to vote conservative on Election Day.

A VERY WACO WELCOME Locally loved Waco restaurant, George's, hosts a rally for Governor Greg Abbott during midterm elections. The restaurant provided free breakfast and beverages to those in attendance.
